Went to post at 1:59. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same.
Jake Weber outbroke his field, opened up a winning lead in the run down the backstretch, was never in trouble and Minder had him well in hand at the finish. John Coulter began slowly, but made up a lot of ground and finished fast. Ithan showed early speed, but tired. Dr. Stuckey likes a soft track and refused to extend himself at any stage of the trip. Water Tower sulked. Hymettus finished well.
Jake Weber, show, 3 to 5. John Coulter, show, 7 to 10. Ithan, show, 3 to 1. Dr. Stuckey, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. c. by Florist—La Gascogne (trained by M. Goldblatt).
Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving.
Boaster was well handled. Hennessy waited with him until nearing the turn out of the backstretch, where he went up next to the inside rail, came around The Regent at the turn for home and drew away with a rush at the end. Malay was outrun early, but finished fast and outgamed Mary Moore in the final drive. Mary Moore had to go all around her field to get up, while Malay saved ground at every turn. The Regent set the pace for the first seven furlongs under restraint, but tired when Boaster challenged. Havel showed early speed. The Talisman was left standing at the post. Eugenia S. showed early speed.
Overweights—Havel, 2 1/2 pounds; The Talisman, 1 1/2.
Boaster, show, 1 to 5. Malay, show, 9 to 20. Mary Moore, show, 8 to 5. The Regent, show, out.

Winner—B. f. by Dr. MacBride—Annul (trained by A. Simons).
Went to post at 3:00. At post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same.
Agnes Brennan was outrun in the first half and Gannon rated her along until nearing the turn into the homestretch, where he cut the corner closely and came through next to the inside rail, saved a couple of lengths at this point and the move won him the race in a hot finish. Allista broke running, raced Komombo into submission in the first half, went wide at the turn into the homestretch, came again at the end and was wearing Agnes Brennan down and would have won in two more strides. Komombo was bumped into at the start and was outrun all the way. Morning Star closed a big gap and finished fast.
Scratched—(43003) Mad Mullah, 110; (43268) Lady Free Knight, 106.
Overweights—Allista, 3 pounds.
Agnes Brennan, show, 3 to 5. Allista, show, 2 to 1. Komombo, show, 1 to 2. Morning Star, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. h. by Deceiver—Eugenie (trained by T. Kiley).
Went to post at 3:35. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same.
Minder took Captain Gaines back in the first half and never made a move with him until nearing the turn out of the backstretch, where he went all around his field and came wide at the turn into the homestretch, but caught the leaders tiring in the stretch and was going away at the end. Lee King came through next to the inside rail, was under a drive all of the last furlong and outgamed Bard of Avon when the pinch came. The latter made up ground in the last half and finished well. The Messenger, Lingo and Ethel Wheat were used up in setting the early pace.

Winner—Br. g. by Ben Strome—Mint Julip (trained by S. W. Streett).
Went to post at 4:07. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily.
Big Ben ran as if he outclassed the field, was cut off at the half-mile post and Robbins had to take him back and go to the outside, then raced Parisienne into submission while rounding the far turn, but had to be hustled along at the end. Parisienne showed much early speed, but was much used in setting the early pace and was under a hard drive all of the last furlong. Invincible saved ground at the turn into the homestretch, but tired after getting to the leaders. Bounding ran a good race and is worth remembering. Custus also went well.
Scratched—(43322) Dan McKenna, 110; (43219) Sweet Nell, 100; 43338 Uranium, 98; 43306 Star and Garter, 92.
Corrected weights—Parisienne, 107.

Winner—B. h. by Cheviot—Sunny Locks (trained by J. W. Chick).
Went to post at 4:41. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same.
Khaki was well ridden. Hennessy kept him in behind One More until nearing the turn into the homestretch, where he went to the front quickly, but had to be hustled all of the last sixteenth to stall off a challenge from Henry of Trastamare. The latter's rider was not much help to him when the pinch came. The horse was outrun in the first half and had to go all around his field to get up and ran the best race of the field. One More showed the most early speed, but could not last the route and tired in the last quarter. Johnson was more of a detriment than a help to Lou Woods, which ran away three miles after the race.
Corrected weights—Miss Aubrey, 98.
Overweights—One More, 2 1/2 pounds.
Khaki, show, 2 to 1. Henry of Trastamare, show, 2 to 1. One More, show, 1 to 2.

Pilot got away well in motion, showed the most speed throughout and lasted it out, although tiring rapidly at the end. J. V. Kirby could never get through until well straightened for home and was closing up rapidly in the stretch under punishment. Florista closed up well on the last turn, but tired in the last furlong. Legal Maxim was cut off shortly after passing the half, losing a lot of ground and was closing up fairly well at the end. Roltaire—usual, showed speed, but quit badly.
